

Table of Contents

We're Going to the Lake ... p. 1

Fanny's Frog Prince ... p. 2

I've Got a Mouse ... p. 3

Don't Start Singing! ... p. 4

'Cause I Like You ... p. 6

The Magic Checkered Hat ... p. 7

You Can Sing a Song ... p. 8

Let's Make a World ... p. 9

Tiny Fay ... p. 10

The Deaf Shepherd Boy ... p. 11

FOR THE LITTLE ONES

A Mom's Love Song ... p. 12

Rocking Horse Dream ... p. 13

My Friend Dudley ... p. 14

Nothing-To-Do Lullaby ... p. 15

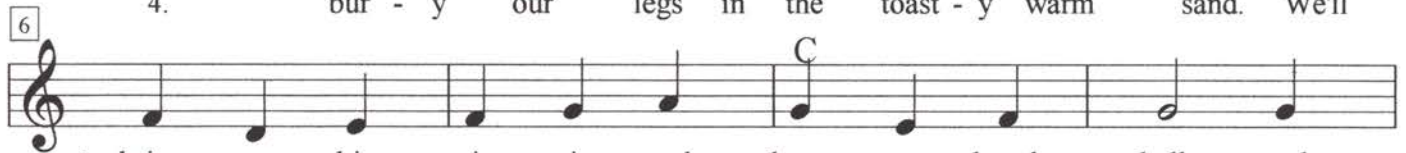

We're Going to the Lake

Callie Raab

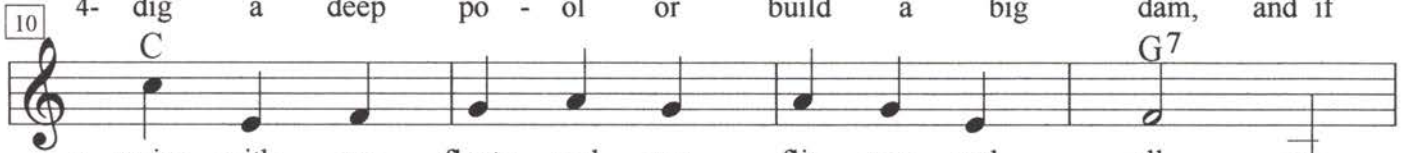

Verses 1-4

1

1. We're going to the lake, where the cat - tails grow tall. We'll
2. wade in the wa - ter, your feet will look gold, and
3. some - times a tur - tle will poke out its head, while
4. bur - y our legs in the toast - y warm sand. We'll

6

- 1- bring a big pic - nic and throw my beach ball, and
- 2- sil - ver - y fish - es will flash by your toes. A
- 3- black - birds fly o - ver, their wings splashed with red, and the
- 4- dig a deep po - ol or build a big dam, and if 10

- 1- swim with our floats and our flip - pers and all.
- 2- dra - gon - fly might e - ven land on your nose!
- 3- duck - lings might come close to nib - ble our bread.
- 4- you make a cas - tle, I'll lend you a hand. We're going to the lake, to the lake!

14

2. If you
3. And
4. We'll

Fanny's Frog Prince

Verse 1.

Callie Raab

1. Fan - ny Flanni-gan found a frog un - der a log by the hill.

"Will you kiss me?" asked the frog. "I nev - er will, nev - er will."

Verses 2,3,4,5.

2. "I'm be-witched; I'm real - ly a prince," said the frog.
 3. "What if I fill your pock - ets with gold, all they can hold?"
 4. "What if I give you a pal - ace so grand and boun - ti - ful land?"
 5. "What if I take you for my wife, for all of my life?"

Verse 6.

She said, "Still, I nev - er will, nev - er will." 6. "If you don't want
 She said, "Still, I nev - er will, nev - er will."
 She said, "Still, I nev - er will, nev - er will."
 She said, "Still, I nev - er will, nev - er will."

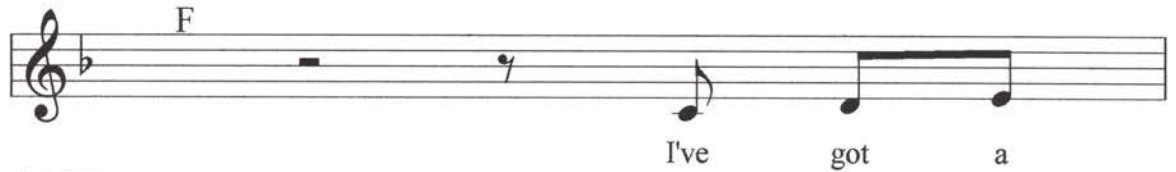

pock - ets of gold, all they can hold; a pal - ace so grand and boun - ti - ful land; to be my wife, for all of my life, then I'll just give you WARTS!"

I've Got a Mouse

Callie Raab

Verses 1,2,3,4,5,6,7.

1. mouse named Mack - y, and he likes me, but he
2. snake named Sad - ie, and she likes me, but she
3. li - on named Len - ny, and he likes me, but he
4. hip - po named Hat - tie, and she likes me, but she
5. ze - bra named Zeke - y, and he likes me, but he
6. kan - gar - oo named Ka - ty, and she likes me, but she
7. os - trich named Oz - zie, and he likes me, but he

- 1- likes to snug - gle in my stink - y socks. I've got a tired.
- 2- likes to swal - low all my build - ing blocks. I've got a
- 3- likes to lick all my lol - li - pops. I've got a
- 4- likes to wear my pa - ja - ma tops. I've got a
- 5- likes to nib - ble on the hol - li - hocks. I've got a
- 6- likes to skip more than she likes to hop. I've got an
- 7- likes to chase me all a - round the block till we get

Option: If you don't want to sing all seven verses, go to verse 7 at any time!

Don't Start Singing!

Swing

Callie Raab

1 Introduction

Verses 1,2,3.

1. Don't you go grin-ning and wink-ing at me. I'm as grump-y as I can be. And
2. Don't you go teas-ing and tick-ling my toes. I'm more crank-y than you sup-pose.
3. Don't you go gig-gling and laugh-ing out loud when I'm un-der a big black cloud.

don't start sing-ing what - ev - er you do, or soon-er or lat - er I'll sing too.

If you start mug-ging and clown-ing a-round, how can I fret and frown?

soon-er or lat-er I'll sing too. Or soon-er or lat - er I'll ...(instrumental)...sing too!

p.2 Don't Start Singing!

Verses 4,5,6.

20

4. Don't you go clap-ping and tap-ping your feet to some snap-py, slap-hap-py beat. And
 5. Don't you go trip-ping and skip-ping a-long to some hap-py-go-luck-y song.
 6. Don't you go danc-ing! Don't kick up your heels! Fan-cy dan-cy's not how I feel.

24

4,5.

don't start sing-ing what - ev - er you do, or soon - er or lat - er I'll sing too.

28

If you start mug-ging and clown-ing a-round, how can I fret and frown?

32

6.

soon - er or lat - er I'll sing too. Or soon - er or lat - er I'll...(instrumental)... sing too!

Optional: End after verse 3 on B-flat.

Composer note: Feel free to mix and match verses in any order you choose.

'Cause I Like You!

Swing

Introduction

Callie Raab

1

If

Verses 1,2,3,4,5,6.

4

1. I had a cook - ie, I would let you have half. If
2. I had a wag - on, I would pull you a - round. If
3. I had a swing set, I would give you a push. If
4. I had a mu - sic box, I'd play you a song. If
5. I had a tick - et, I would buy you a ride. _____
6. you had a birth - day, I would make you a card. _____

6

Chorus

- 1- I _____ knew a joke, _____ I would get you to laugh. Oh,
- 2- I _____ had a tree _____ house, I'd help you get down.
- 3- I _____ knew some mag - ic, I would grant you a wish.
- 4- I were go - ing to the zoo, I'd ask you a - long.
- 5- on a Fer - ris wheel _____ right _____ by _____ my side.
- 6- I'd do what you asked me, ev - en if it was hard.

8

so man - y things I'd be hap - py to do 'cause

10

I like you! If I like you!

The Magic Checkered Hat

Callie Raab

Verses 1,2,3,4,5.

1. Once there was a ped - dler who found a check - ered hat.
 2. will you buy my wares, ma'am?" "No, I need none of that.
 3. will you buy my wares, sir?" "No, I need none of that.
 4. til one day a ban - dit — robbed him in a ditch,
 5. if you knew how many times he's sold that check - ered hat,

It had speck - led feath - ers and rib - bons at the back.
 But if it's for sale, sir, I'll buy your check - ered hat."
 But if it's for sale, sir, I'll buy your check - ered hat."
 for by then the ped - dler was too weak to re - sist.
 then you'd know how many times he's got a new one back.

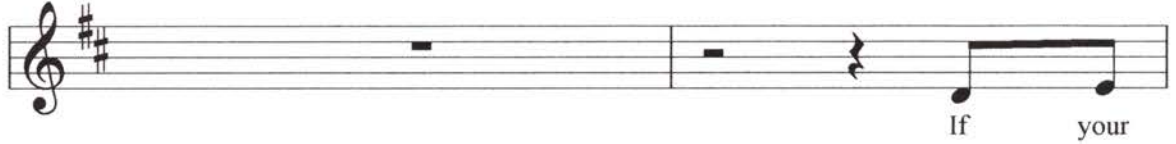

He looked so dis - tin - guished, peo - ple bowed; they'd stop and stare. He
 He looked so dis - tin - guished, peo - ple bowed; they'd stop and stare. He Soon his clothes were tat - tered. Soon his shoes were full of holes. He
 When he shed a single tear that his check - ered hat was gone, he He looks so dis - tin - guished, peo - ple bow; they stop and stare. He vowed to keep it on his head, in his bath and eve - ry - where. "Oh, vowed to keep it on his head, in his bath and eve - ry - where. "Oh, had - n't sold a sin - gle thing in heav - en knows how long, I'm told. Un - felt a some - thing on his head, and there he found an - oth - er one. Oh, vows to keep it on his head, in his bath and eve - ry - where he goes.

You Can Sing a Song

Callie Raab

Verses 1,2

1. heart feels hap-py and your fing-ers feel snap-py, and you don't know what to do, you can
2. smile feels sag-gy and your feet ___ feel drag-gy, and you don't know what to do, you can sing a song or hum a-long, beat a drum or strum a strum, or play a buz-zy ka - zoo.

sing a song or hum a-long, beat a drum or strum a strum, and make a hul-la - ba - loo.

Chorus

You can buzz and jin - gle and clap and tap on a tam - bou - rine. You can sing a song or hum a - long, beat a drum or strum a strum, and have a jol - ly jam - bo - ree. If your

Let's Make a World

Briskly

Callie Raab

1 Introduction

9 Verses 1, 2, 3.

1. We are one world, one hand reach - ing out. — We are one heart that's o - pen.
2. Each of us has our own gifts to give, our own way to live with o - thers.
3. Let's make a world that's peace - ful and more, where no one is poor or hun - gry.

17

We are one voice that cries in the night; — we are one heart that's brok - en.
 Each of us has so much we can share, — ways we can care for o - thers.
 Let's make a world where ev - ery - one's free, where all that we dream we CAN be.

25 Chorus

small children: When you're hap - py, I'm glad. When you're sad, I am too.
small children: It's so ea - sy to see We're a - like, you and me.
ALL: If we all — join hands, there's so much we can do.

33

ALL: We are one fam - ily, sing - ing a song. We all be - long to - ge - ther.

Tiny Fay

1 Verses 1-7 Callie Raab

1. Once a yeo - man had three daugh - ters, Jane and Ann and ti - ny Fay.
2. "Wilt thou help a penny - less pau - per?" asked a crone as Jane passed by.
3. "Wilt thou help a hun - gry beg - gar?" asked the crone as Ann passed by.
4. "Wilt thou help a friend - less crea - ture?" asked the crone as Fay passed by.
5. One tear dropped and rang like sil - ver. One tear dropped and rang like gold.
6. All her tears turned gold or sil - ver from that mo - ment ev - er after,
7. Repeat verse 1

5

- 1- They set off to mar - ket on a bright and sun - ny day.
- 2- Jane paid not the slight - est heed, nor did she blink an eye.
- 3- Ann paid not the slight - est heed, nor did she blink an eye.
- 4- When Fay saw her rag - ged clothes, two tears fell from her eye.
- 5- At her feet lay two bright coins, and this is what I'm told:
- 6- wheth - er she shed tears of grief or wheth - er tears of laughter.

The Deaf Shepherd Boy

Callie Raab

Verses 1,2,3.

1. High up - on a hill, — on a night so clear, stood a shep-herd boy who could not hear. His
2. Then the cri-p-pled dove that was his on - ly friend spread its bro-ken wings for Beth - le - hem. He
3. found it in a man-ger, rest-ing in the hay, where the new-born ba - by Je - sus lay. — sheep were fast a-sleep when right be - fore his eyes rose a star that lit up half the sky.

fol - lowed where it flew; he chased it long and far as it sailed on guid-ed by the star.
Cows were low - ing soft - ly; lambs were bleat-ing too. Eve - ry sound was won - der - ful and new.

Chorus

On a ho-ly night as bright as bright could be, Mar-y had the sweet-est ba - by. - by. He - by.

Verse 4.

Repeat Chorus

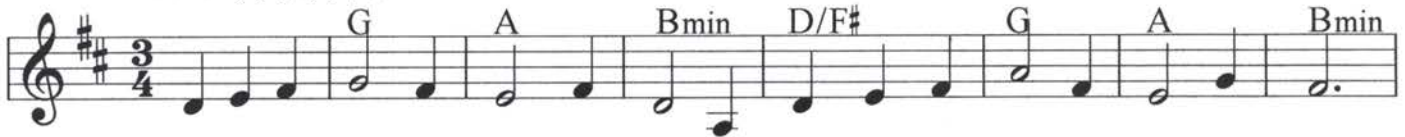

Then he heard a voice, whis-p'ring from a - bove, and the on - ly word it said was "LOVE."

A Mom's Love Song

Callie Raab

Verses 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8.

1. Yes, I will love you when you're hap - py, wav - ing good - by as off you ride
2. And I will love you when you're sil - ly, when you put stick - ers on your nose
3. And I will love you when you're crank-y, when eve - ry - thing is go - ing wrong,
4. Yes, I will love you when you're lone - ly, and it's O - K if you com - plain
5. And I will love you when you're fright-ened of a big sha-dow in the night.
6. And I will love you when you're an - gry that I said no more cho-colate cake,
7. And I will love you when you're chat - ty, when you've got just so much to say
8. And I won't love you just a lit - tle. That would be much too hard to do.

- 1- on a bright car - ou - sel or kid - die train with Pooh bear by your side.
- 2- or when you wear your un - dies on your head and you tickle your own toes.
- 3- like when your wag - on broke and you skinned your knee and your bath took too long.
- 4- that Pop-py's gone un - til next Fri - day night, when we'll meet his air - plane.
- 5- "It's not a bear, it's just an o - ver - coat." And I'll hold you so tight.
- 6- though you may yell that you don't care at all if you get a tummy ache.
- 7- that we might have to talk an hour or more, you've had such a busy day.
- 8- I'd ra - ther love you lots, with all my heart. I'm so glad that you're you!

Rocking Horse Dream

Verses 1,2,3.

Callie Raab

1. O-ver a rain-bow made of moon - light, me and my rock-ing horse fly through the night;
2. Un-der the o-cean, through the sea trees, me and my rock-ing horse sail like the breeze;
3. When he gets yawn-y, I whis-per "Whoa," and down a swir-l of snow-flakes we go, scat-ter-ing clouds, — high - er than high, we watch the world go by.

 o - ver sea ferns, — o - ver sea flowers, we ride and ride for hours.
 in - to a snow-drift, down-y and deep, and soon we're fast a - sleep.

My Friend Dudley

Callie Raab

Introduction

1

Verses 1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8.

3

1. My friend Dud - ley is a di - no - saur. He's al - most as tall as my front door.
 2. My friend Dud - ley does - n't know too much, so I teach him good man - ners and such.

7

He's got yel - low speck - les on his bel - ly, red stripes on his head,
 "Dud - ley, when you ask some - one for some - thing, you should first say, 'Please,' and he sleeps curled up be - side my bed.

9

 like at din - ner, say, 'Please pass the peas.'"

3. My friend Dudley needs me to explain, he needs boots to go out in the rain.
 He forgets his feet are very muddy; he leaves dirty tracks on the rug and floor my mommy waxed.
4. Sometimes he won't try new things to eat, like potatoes that are orange and sweet.
 "Dudley, why don't you just try a little? Take a tiny bite. You think you won't like it, but you might."
5. Sometimes he gets scared to do new things. "Dudley, it's time your big teeth got cleaned.
 Really, it's OK to see the dentist; I know that he's nice. So's the doctor, and I've seen her twice."
6. My friend Dudley, he's got lots to learn about sharing, about taking turns.
 Sometimes he forgets to share the Legos or the sidewalk chalk, and at nap time, he just talks and talks.
7. When he's naughty, I try not to scold. Though he's big, he isn't very old.
 When he's tired, he gets a little cranky, and he starts to fuss. I say, "Bedtime!" like my daddy does.
8. My friend Dudley is a dinosaur. He's almost as tall as my front door.
 When he feels he's not so good at something, I say, "Wait and see! Someday you'll be just as good as me."

Nothing-To-Do Lullaby

Callie Raab

Chorus

Close, close, close your eyes, and I will sing you a lul - la - by.

Verses 1,2,3,4,5.

1. Now you're a feath-er, float - ing on air, with noth - ing to do but be there.
2. Now you're a flow-er, bloom - ing in May, with noth - ing to do but sway.
3. Now you're a leaf, drift - ing down - stream, with noth - ing to do but dream.
4. Now you're a stone, high on a hill, with noth - ing to do but be still.
5. Now you're a bird, snug in her nest, with noth - ing to do but rest.